

ECHOES FROM THE LODGE ROOM

Ionie Camp, M. W. A., Observes Thirteenth Anniversary With Smoker and Social Time—Foresters Appoint Delegates to State Gathering—Odd Fellows Conduct Whist.

UNITED WORKMEN.

Owing to the presence of Brother Edward E. Mix of New Haven, member of the grand lodge finance committee, and Master Workman Daniel C. Halloran and Brother Charles B. Douglas of Sprague lodge, No. 8, New London, and Grand Outside Watchman Hiram M. Hodgson of Thames lodge, No. 13, Groton, Union lodge, No. 10, of Naugatuck had a particularly interesting meeting last Monday evening. The lodge held its installation of officers which was conducted by Supervisor Charles B. Douglas of New London and suite, among those installed being Brother Hill, previously foreman of the lodge, as master workman. After speeches had been made to instill more vigor into this already progressive lodge, cigars were passed around and a pleasant social evening was enjoyed by all.

The regular meeting of the grand lodge finance committee will be held at the grand lodge office, New Haven, on Wednesday afternoon, March 26th, and the grand lodge executive committee will hold their regular monthly meeting there Wednesday evening.

SONS OF HERMANN.

At Thursday evening's meeting of Germania lodge, No. 11, in Germania hall, the lodge delegates were elected to the grand council at Hartford May 30 and 31: J. H. Leopold, John Saldel, Thomas Greathall, Henry H. Eribock, William Sittich, Carl Bradshaw. This year Germania lodge will have eight delegates to the grand council, Vice President Herman Jackel making the eighth, the largest number which the lodge has ever had.

One new member was initiated and two applications for membership were received. The lodge has been growing in membership rapidly of late and is in a most prosperous condition. Immergruen lodge has elected Mrs. J. H. Leopold and Mrs. Herman Optiz delegates to the grand council of the women's auxiliary to be held in Middletown May 7. At the last meeting of the lodge five applications for membership were received and one new member was initiated.

FORESTERS OF AMERICA.

Court Sachem, No. 94, held a well attended meeting Thursday evening in T. A. B. hall and one candidate was initiated. These delegates were appointed to the state convention to be held in May at New Haven: Joseph E. Portantone, Jeremiah Healy, Henry Clement, alternates, Frank Hero, Dona Simino, Louis Sauter. It was reported that Foresters' hall would again be ready for occupancy some time next month.

The New London Foresters have invited the three local courts to attend the meeting to be held the first Tuesday in April, when there will be a class of ten initiated.

SONS OF VETERANS.

The election of officers will take place at next Thursday evening's meeting of Sedgewick camp, No. 4, and several prominent speakers have been secured for the occasion. A large attendance is expected and it is planned to make the occasion a pleasant one. Efforts are under way to revive interest in the order and to awake a new spirit of activity.

ODD FELLOWS.

Uncas lodge, No. 11, worked the second degree in full form on the candidates of Shetucket lodge at Monday evening's meeting in Odd Fellows' hall. Uncas lodge has three candidates for the initiatory degree next meeting.

At the regular meeting of Bellows lodge, No. 29, of Jewett City, held Monday night the evening of April 4 was the date set for the banquet of the grand master. It was decided to give Uncas and Shetucket lodges of Norwich and Protection lodge of Central Village. The second degree will be worked that evening.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS.

White Cross council, No. 13, held its regular meeting Friday night. The first degree was conferred upon a large class of candidates and five applicants were elected to membership. The large number of members that are being passed through the degrees of the order makes it imperative for the council to arrange for the exemplification of the third or major degree in the near future, and the proper officers have the matter under consideration.

A communication was read from John M. Lee, master of the fourth degree, announcing a forthcoming exemplification of the fourth degree to be held in Bridgeport on May 30. Every indication points to a large class of candidates for membership in this section of the order.

ODD FELLOWS.

Uncas and Shetucket lodges conducted a pleasant whist Friday evening in Odd Fellows' hall. Fifteen tables were played and prizes were awarded as follows: Ladies—First, Mrs. Prodel, cream and sugar set; second, Mrs. Joseph George, fancy sugar bowl; Men—First, J. C. Clish, stick pin; second, Mr. Prodel, fancy necktie.

Dancing followed the whist and all enjoyed a delightful time.

Extra Car for Immigrants.

There was an extra car for immigrants on the 6:40 New Haven north-bound train through here Friday night. It was to transport those who had come up to New London on the boat from New York which regularly reaches the former named port in the morning but on Friday was delayed by fog so that it did not make port till late in the afternoon.

WAS NEVADA PIONEER.

John W. Boynton, Native of This State, Dies at His Home in Reno.

Norwich friends of John W. Boynton of Reno, Nevada, who died here while he was here on a visit three years ago, will regret to learn of his death which occurred on March 8th at his home in Reno.

Of Mr. Boynton's decease the Reno paper says: One of the oldest pioneers of Nevada, in the person of John W. Boynton, died at his home in Reno, Nevada, at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon, after an illness extending over some weeks.

About a month ago Mr. Boynton paid a visit to California in the hope that a change in climate might benefit him. He returned to Reno two weeks ago little benefited in health and steadily sank until death came yesterday.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Myrtle Boynton, and three children, Alice, Wesley and Cynthia Boynton.

Well Known Resident.

Mr. Boynton was a native of Connecticut and was born 78 years ago. Fifty-five years ago he came to Nevada and had been a resident of this state ever since. By making good use of his talents, by industry and ability he accumulated a large amount of property in Reno and Nevada and was accounted a wealthy man. He devoted almost all his attention to the raising of stock and his ranches are famous throughout the west.

He was a member of the Reno lodge of Odd Fellows and was a past grand master of the order.

Mr. Boynton's life history shows what can be done by the exercise of industry and the practice of honesty and integrity in dealing with one's fellowmen.

By his unaided efforts he rose to a position of affluence and commanded the respect and esteem of his fellowmen.

He lived beyond the accepted span of human life and his passing away leaves a void that will be hard to fill. Scores of lifelong and devoted friends mourn his loss, for he was a friend in need to many.

The funeral services were under the auspices of Reno lodge, No. 14, I. O. O. F., of which lodge Mr. Boynton was past grand master and a member for many years.

The Odd Fellows' services for the dead were conducted at the hall and cemetery by Noble Grand George Armstrong, assisted by officers of Reno lodge No. 14 and Chaplain A. W. Holmes.

Rev. Harry Sheldon, pastor of the Reno Methodist church, delivered a funeral oration at the conclusion of the Odd Fellows' services, in which he referred in feeling terms to the life of the honored dead and dwelt at some length on the half century of usefulness which marked the late Mr. Boynton's life in Nevada.

At all the services a large number of sorrowing friends were present and many beautiful floral offerings attested the fact that memories of kindly deeds and charitable acts remain, ineffable, in the minds of those who knew Mr. Boynton in the active days, which now have closed forever for him in this world.

In the east Mr. Boynton leaves the following nieces and nephews: Clarence D. Boynton, of Norwich; Olin P. Boynton, of Montville, Mrs. William H. Boynton, of North George W. Boynton, of Houston, Texas; William H. Boynton, of Lewiston, Maine. He also leaves a brother, Philander Boynton, of Manchester.
